

Business

Cass County EDC elects new officers

Print Page

Published: Wednesday, December 16, 2009 2:42 PM CST

The Cass County Economic Development Corporation (EDC) recently elected officers for 2010.

Jim Tertin of Magnum Research in Pillager was elected president. He has 36 years of experience in firearms and manufacturing.

Dave Holk will serve as vice president. He has more than 41 years' experience in retail and is the manager of the Cass Lake Building Center in Cass Lake.

Skip Duchesneau Jr., of D.W. Jones in Walker will continue his role as treasurer, while Howard Prushek of the city of Remer was elected secretary for another year.

The EDC is a nonprofit economic development organization whose mission is to help businesses create new jobs and capital investment. It is funded by Cass County, memberships and governmental partners.

For more information on the EDC, call (218) 947-7522 or e-mail www.co.cass.mn.us/edc.

Copyright © 2009 - The Pilot Independent

[\[x\] Close Window](#)