

EDC personnel attend business lending training

staff reports pilotnews@pilotindependent.com | Posted: Monday, March 31, 2014 7:38 am

Cass County Economic Development Corporation (EDC) Executive Director Gail Levenson and Business Development Consultant Julie Hofius recently attended a training seminar on Small Business Administration (SBA) lending.

The seminar was held at Central Lakes College in Brainerd, with the Minnesota Business Finance Corporation presenting new changes to the SBA 504 program.

The EDC keeps current on business lending and economic development tools. You can contact the office at (218) 947-7522 to arrange a meeting to discuss your business idea and how these tools could assist you.

The EDC is a community nonprofit corporation with the mission to "Improve the business environment of Cass County by encouraging a strong, diverse and sustainable economy and to build better relationships between business, government agencies and local communities."